Katherin – Paul will talk to you about the follow-up on this issue; I'll just say that I really appreciate how quickly you stepped in yesterday to cover this question. Please be sure to request overtime as needed for the extra work you've been putting in.

Just fyi - I traded messages with Dan Hawthorne and forwarded the testimony to him. We just haven't had a chance to talk. Will keep you posted.

Given the ongoing IG inquiry, my recommendation was to first inform the IG, in case they wanted to talk with this employee. I was planning to call Dan Hawthorne.

For our own internal informational-gathering purposes, however, ordinarily we would have the first line supervisor discuss the incident with the employee. In this circumstance, however, someone else may be more appropriate. I raised this issue with Bob and he suggested I send this email.

I also note this employee is in the bargaining unit, so she should be notified of her right to bring a representative to any discussion since it could result in disciplinary action.
